

Leadership Development Program

*Is your style of leadership effective?
Are you experiencing roadblocks to your desired success?*

Saturday, March 27, 2010
at the Radisson Blu St. Helen's Hotel in Dublin
0900 – 1600

AND

Monday, March 29, 2010 and Wednesday, March 31, 2010
at the Radisson SAS Royal Hotel, in Dublin City Centre
1800 - 2130

Two leadership development workshops will be offered for individuals who either currently or in the future will lead groups or organizations and who are interested in taking a closer look at their leadership style(s). You will be provided an assessment, interpretation and application of styles of leadership.

Leadership Development workshop objectives

- Understanding your behavioral tendencies and how they affect others
- Exploring personal and professional strengths and integrating them into the job
- Learning to convert difficult work problems into new opportunities
- Enhancing your effectiveness in completing tasks by improving your relationships with others
- Setting and stating intentions clearly
- Identifying roadblocks to leadership and how to overcome them
- Discovering tools for becoming a more effective team player
- Developing strategies for working together to increase productivity

David Rude, MA, CPC, is a certified professional coach. He holds a Masters Degree in Psychology. He has provided leadership training and coaching support to a wide range of managers, executives and teams throughout North America, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand.

For more information,
please contact David at davrude@yahoo.com
001-530-903-2428
www.5monkey.org

EUR 260. Space is limited.

Discount available if admission purchased prior to March 15.

“David is truly passionate about his coaching. He uses his energy and commitment to help individuals identify what they want and need as leaders and to use that new information to build more efficient and successful relationships.”

Suzanne Gough, former Head of Market Research and Commercial Planning at Cadbury Schweppes, London, Founder/Director, Drink Sunshine Coaching/Consultants